ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

The cheese factory in Ira is closed for the winter.

The Bellows Falls Woman's club cleared $80 recently at a rummage sale for the benefit of the district nurse fund.

Marvella C. Webber and James P. Leamy have formed a law corporation in Rutland, to be known as Webber & Leamy.

A horse belonging to Mitchell Goulet, a Burlington baker, ran away Friday night and plunged from a railroad bridge, killing itself.

Miss Cora Bergeron, the 15-year-old Burlington girl who drank carbolic acid last week, is improving at the Mary Fletcher hospital.

Mrs. Ella Welch died at her home in East Wallingford Nov. 13 from burns received when her apron caught fire as she was putting wood in the stove.

Rev. William Clark, who recently resigned as pastor of the Congregational church at Barre, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the church at Wilmington.

In addition to knitting sweaters, helmets, etc., for the Red Cross, the women of St. Albans have completed 26 knitted afghans since June 1, and eight-inch squares are ready for six more afghans.

Kivie Chorney, a Jewish peddler, pleaded guilty in Springfield last week to taking from the home of Mrs. E. F. Russell of that place, with rugs which he had purchased, a $40 fur coat. He returned the coat and paid a fine of $10 and costs.

George Kenney of Montpelier had a narrow escape when a spent bullet, probably fired by a deer hunter, at a distance, struck him in the cheek, making a hole in one corner of his mouth and striking a wisdom tooth. There was no one within 50 feet of him when it happened.

Notice.

The public health section of the Vermont State Nurses' association will hold a special session, with luncheon, from 12 m. to 2 p. m. on Saturday, Nov. 24, at Rutland. William H. Jeffrey, secretary of the state board of charities and probation, and Harold W. Stinson of the Vermont Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis will speak on the subject of the nurse's co-operation with the societies which they represent. There will be other speakers.

All the public health nurses of the state are urged to be present at this discussion of the social aspects of their work.

at 1 o'clock sharp in the afternoon. We shall have for this sale

30 Fresh Horses

Carload just in from the West. In this lot you will find some fancy matched pairs, nice single horses, the kind we usually carry, horses that are all ready for all kinds of business, weights ranging from 1,100 to 1,600 lbs., all to be sold under a straight guarantee, as we stand back of everything we sell and will not be in the market again until you are fair treatment in the future. In this lot we have 1 PAIR OF REGISTERED COAL BLACK BELGIAN PER-SIAN MARES, weight 2,700 lbs., a dandy team. We have some second-hand horses of our own, and we have consigned for this sale 1 PAIR OF 2,400-LB. MULES, also 2 BROOD SOWS, and from

25 to 40 Commission Horses
—all kinds, colors, sizes and values. If you have horses that you have no further use for and do not care to winter them, this is the time and place to convert them into cash. If you are looking for something in the line of second-hand horses, either to work or drive, you will always find them at these sales. We shall most likely have some FARM TOOLS, SLEIGHS, WAGONS, HARNESSSES, etc. We always have ROBES, BLANKETS, WHIPS, HALTERS, etc. If you have anything in the line of personal property you wish to dispose of, be on hand with it at this sale, and we will get you the cash. This will quite likely be a large sale, as both our private sale business and auctions are increasing all the time. Usual terms of credit. Lunch room on the ground.

COMMISSIONS CHARGED FOR SELLING HORSES—All over $50, 5 per cent; under $50, 8 per cent. No horse sold or put through the sale for less than $50. A commission will be charged for all horses sold either at private or auction sale on the grounds of the sale. For the sale of horses, harnesses, farm tools, furniture or other property, 10 per cent commission.

Real Estate and Personal Property!

As I have purchased the Charles N. Barber farm in Barre Town and shall move there soon, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder, on at 1 o'clock sharp in the afternoon, on the premises where I now live, known as the Theodore Wood or Henry Egglefield farm, situated on Hollister hill, 1 1/2 miles from Plainfield village, Vt., the following:

MY NICE HOME FARM

which contains 100 acres of land, 50 acres in tillage, balance pasture and woods. The farm is situated on a high, level, in fine state of cultivation, dark loam soil for which this section is famous. Farm cuts 75 tons of hay and other crops. Large 14-room house finished in hard wood, slate and tin roof, very convenient with closets and pantry, ample porches, basement under all with granite walls. Artisan well furnishes never-failing water. One-fourth mile to school, on R. F. D. and telephone lines. Large basement barn 40x80 with lean-to stable fronting the South, which makes it warm and pleasant, can tie 30 head of cattle. One other barn 30x40, large silo, granary and work shop. This is an up-to-date farm, grand view from the buildings, a pleasant and attractive home, one of the best in the county, and a big money-making proposition.

PERSONAL PROPERTY—As I have no hay on the farm which I have purchased, and I shall be engaged this winter in cutting wood and lumber, I have decided to sell my nice herd of cows and some young stock.

ESTATE OF CHARLES N. BARBER

State of Vermont, District of Washington, ss. The Honorable Federal Court for the District of Vermont, do hereby certify that the late Charles N. Barber, deceased, was a resident of the town of Barre, in said district, deceased. GREETING:

WHEREAS, application hath been made to this court in writing, by the administratrix de bonis non with the will annexed, praying for license and authority to sell all real estate and personal property of said deceased, for the payment of debts and charges of administration, setting forth there-in the amount of debts due from said estate, and the charges of administration, and the amount of personal estate and the situation of the real estate;

WHEREUPON, the said court appointed and assigned the 6th day of December, 1917, at the probate office in Montpelier, in said district, to hear and decide upon said application, and ordered public notice thereof to be given to all persons interested therein, by the publication of this order in one of the newspapers published in said district, three weeks successively, in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper which circulates in the neighborhood of the premises interested in said estate, all of which publications shall be previous to the day assigned for hearing.

THEREFORE, you are hereby notified to appear before said court, at the time and place assigned, under penalty of being held in contempt of court, and of being liable to make good your objections to the granting of such license, if you see cause.

Given under my hand and of the Court of said district, this 10th day of November, 1917.

FRANK J. MARTIN, Judge.
